Fund for Women and Girls “recycles” apple centerpieces to support food pantry

NORWALK, April 19 2011— The Fairfield County Community Foundation’s 12th annual luncheon for its Fund for Women and Girls featured reusable table centerpieces in the Hyatt Regency Greenwich ballroom.

Seventy canvas tote bags with pink trim were stuffed with 700 Granny Smith apples to decorate the tables.

The apples, all donated by the Village Market in Wilton and Fairway Market in Stamford, were donated to Neighbor to Neighbor’s food pantry in Greenwich immediately after the event, which was attended by more than 700 supporters of the Fund for Women and Girls.

Suzanne Brown Peters, Director of the Fairfield County Community Foundation’s Fund for Women and Girls, center, with student volunteers at the Neighbor-to-Neighbor food pantry. The Fund for Women and Girls donated 700 apples, used as part of the centerpieces at its annual luncheon, to the food pantry to help provide fresh produce to area families receiving meal support from Neighbor-to-Neighbor.
